CONSENT LETTER FOR EXTENSION BRIEFING SCHEDULE

Dear Hon. Magistrate Judge Aaron,

There is currently a pending motion to transfer that was filed in this action 20-CV-3873 on May 18, 2023 (Dkt No. 203). Recently, this Court has ordered a briefing schedule in related case 20-CV-3668 for Plaintiffs to amend their complaint against Defendant Kadlec, the CEO of ADMIS, on or by June 7, 2023. In accordance with the email chain attached and consent from Defendant, Plaintiff respectfully requests a mutual short adjustment of seven extra days to the existing briefing schedule that is equitable to both parties, each, so as to avoid overlapping briefings.

Defendant consents to the schedule.

Opposition Due:

June 1, 2023 -> June 8, 2023 (Revised Dates, seven extra days to a total of twenty-one days)

Replies Due:

June 8, 2023 -> June 22, 2023 (Revised Dates, seven extra days from fourteen days)

We respectfully request the Court adopt the schedule. This would also afford Defendant the opportunity to view the complaint before filing any opposition.

Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Samantha S Kumaran
